We are looking for developers who obsess over clean code, focus on evolutionary design, argue about fundamental concepts and thrive on complexity. With this, if you are amazing with the keyboard, we'd love to work with you.

You will be coding, architecting and building our core products and platforms on android.

That's it.

If this sounds like your kind of challenge and team, take our screening test. We are eager to be impressed by you.
